

Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Howard County," to be under sub-title "Beers and Light Wines," said new sections to be known as Sections 226A to 226J, both inclusive, and to follow immediately after Section 226 of said Article, and to read as follows:

226A. The term "beverages" as used in this Act shall include beer, lager beer, ale, porter, wine and other brewed or fermented beverages containing one-half of one per centum or more of alcohol by volume but not more than 3.2 per centum of alcohol by weight.

226B. In Howard County the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Howard County is authorized to issue licenses to persons, firms, corporations or associations on applications duly made therefor, for the sale of beverages within the limits of Howard County, subject, however, to the limitations and restrictions imposed by this Act. The Clerk of the Circuit Court for Howard County shall keep a full record of all applications for licenses, which applications shall be furnished by the County Commissioners.

226C. It shall be lawful for any brewer or manufacturer to sell to licensees under the provisions of this Act, in Howard County, any beverage or beverages authorized to be manufactured or brewed by the laws of the United States of America, and of the State of Maryland.

226D. Any person, firm, corporation or association desiring a license for the sale of beer under this Act shall file with the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Howard County an application therefor in such form as may be by him prescribed. Each license shall designate the place of business of the licensee. Each application for license shall contain:

First: The name and residence of the applicant.

Second: The particular place for which a license is desired designating the same by street and number if practicable; if not, by such other apt description as definitely locates it.

Third: The name of the owner of the premises upon which the business licensed is to be carried on.

Fourth: A statement that the applicant applying for a license in his or her own behalf, or as the representative of a firm, corporation or association, is a citizen of the United States and of the State of Maryland, and that he is not less than twenty-one years of age.
